

Presentation / Workshop with Dr Wendela Marsh

This event is an opportunity to interact with Dr Wendy and ask your questions about so many subjects.

Also included will be a brief introduction to Cognitopia's new Person Centered Approach to Diabetes Self-Management

Wendela Whitcomb Marsh is an autism author, speaker, and consultant. She has been a teacher, principal, educational psychologist, university instructor, behavior analyst, pastoral counselor and problem solver, as well as spouse and parent of awesome autists. Her favorite subject to write about is autism and the many ways autists can succeed and be true to themselves in a neurotypical world.
